

There is a new song

There is a new song in our mouths
A stream of gladness in our hearts
The Lamb of God has overcome
Jesus is risen from the dead

Hallelujah, Hallelujah
Jesus is alive
Hallelujah, Hallelujah
Jesus is alive

He flings wide the prison doors
Speaks the words of liberty
Lay down Your life and You will be free
He breaks the yoke of slavery

There is a sound of a trumpet call
To take this message to the world
He'll wipe the tears of sorrow dry
The church of Jesus will arise
